OMAG Guidance: Workplace Investigations

When a complaint of harassment is received, the municipality should begin a prompt and impartial investigation, separate the parties if needed, and document each interview. Interview notes should be kept in a confidential investigation file, not the personnel file.